About Penny...

An active member in her home church, Penny serves on the Women's Ministry Team. Recognizing and utilizing her spiritual gifts of administration, hospitality and teaching, she has facilitated numerous women's Bible studies and coordinated many memorable special events.

With a passion for the ministry of hospitality and her unique and creative approach to ministry, Penny has touched the hearts of many. She has worked with various churches to coordinate events from small luncheons or afternoon teas to larger banquets and weekend retreats. Penny has a heart for, and sensitivity to, the ministry that takes place at each event.

Penny's unique perspective to entertaining, coupled with her gifts of creativity and organization and her attention to detail, makes each event special, unique and one to remember. It is her desire to mentor and enable others to become confident hosts who are comfortable with entertaining.

Gifted with infectious and creative humor, Penny is an entertaining speaker who loves sharing her heart on women's ministry, hospitality, tea, and etiquette.

Penny has been married to her sweetheart and partner, Terry since 1981. They have one daughter, Aaryn (Texas A&M Class of 2004 "whoop!") who is currently in pursuit of her PhD at LSU.
